

SkyLine/SkyBest

Seeking applications for the following career opportunity:

Software Developer

The Software Developer's role will be to provide software development functions including, but not limited to, automating and integrating various company processes, web enabling various employee and consumer processes, integrating third-party programs for efficiencies. This includes planning and coordinating all activities related to the design, development, and implementation of software applications. This role also includes participating in setting the company's Web development strategy and oversight of the company's websites and intranet sites. Bachelor's or Master's degree in Computer Science or Computer Engineering required.

Please email resume and references to peggy.wallace@skyline.org.